

LEADERSHIP CONCLAVE

The EPSI's B-School Leadership Conclave culminated with a core focus on Indian business education and discussed on bringing autonomy among institutions. Dr Anil D Sahasrabudhe, Chairman of AICTE, exchanged ideas on bringing a comprehensive set of rules to regulate autonomy among business schools and also shared his struggle to fill the gap between AICTE and business schools, especially while developing a curriculum on newer topics like blockchain and cryptocurrency.

The fourth plenary session included a panel discussion on Regulatory Policy for Developing Futuristic B'Schools in India which included Dr Rattan Sharma, President, AIMS; Sanjay Padode, Secretary, CDE, IFIM Business School; Dr Jitendra K Das, Director, FORE School of management among others.